We are very excited!

Home to School Communications

We hope you all found the new 'Home to School Communications Policy' which sets out how we can continue to communicate effectively during the Covid-19 pandemic useful. A copy of this policy was sent out via Weduc and it is also in the 'Hub' section on Weduc.

Homework: Our homework will continue to go out on a Monday and must be returned (in 1 message) by the following Monday. The weekly task will be set and marked as a Weduc task.

Reading Books: Reading scheme books and EYFS phonics books will be brought home on a Monday and MUST be returned on a Friday. KS2 children with free reader books will just bring the book back when they have finished reading it and their teacher will help them choose another one and keep a record of what, and how much they are reading. Books will then be quarantined and then sent out again the following week. Children do not need to bring in their yellow reading diary, this can be filled in at home and just stay at home for now. Teachers will continue to make their own reading assessments and monitoring in school. We still do not need to bring in book bags- if it is raining we will pop the book in a plastic wallet for the child to send home.

Thank You

Foodbank Collections

We are still collecting for the foodbank, as the need for this service has never been greater. If you would like to make a donation please send any dry, tinned and non-perishable goods in with your child on a morning and the class teacher will safely collect the parcels in.

Thank you
